(Legislative Affairs)
Washington, D.C. 20301

Dear Mr. Secretary:

It is requested that Mr. Robert V. Davis, a member of the staff of the House Appropriations Defense Subcommittee, be granted the necessary special security clearances to enable him to handle his assigned responsibilities.

Mr. Davis has primary responsibility for advising the Appropriations Committee on military manpower and training issues. As a result, it is necessary that he have access to detailed military deployment information for not only United States forces, but also for our allies and potential adversaries. His responsibility includes review of Department of Defense manpower appropriation requests in conjunction with, for example, the nature and magnitude of any threat to NATO from Warsaw Pact nations and our manpower planning and capability for countering that threat; mobilization planning for the various wartime scenarios; contingency plans involving the third world; potential threats to United States and Allied forces in Korea and elsewhere in the Pacific; and the long-range manpower and training implications associated with weaponry development in the United States, allied nations, and potential adversaries.

Sincerely,

George Mahon
Chairman
